Thothmes II eventually dies, having fathered a clever, strong son by a dancer, and this nephew-son, Thothmes III, kills Hat's friends and her lover Senmut. Even though it is a bit lengthy, and I did feel as though I got bored in some parts but that was probably because I read it Child Of The Morning like 3 sittings, it gives great detail of life back in the Egyptian days and is great for those like me who love historical fiction.
