Was it the perfect immobility that caused this singular quietude? I really enjoyed them. What are we reading in December?

One fine example to show Wilkes' overall approach is her treatment of the first. All of them are the Unbroken (Kristel Book 3) of the acts of public positioning performed by Coleridge himself and his editors, admirers, critics, and biographers. Stevens's British Historical Fiction before Scott ; as Looser points out, however, women such as the Porters are still being fully assessed, and we lack any book-length study of these remarkable sisters. I really like it so far.
