As director of pastoral relations, I'm here to help. And please explain to me where church membership is talked about in the Bible???

It is this kind of ministry we need to rediscover, of which we need to mine its depths.

The guiding focus of this review is a desire to rediscover the meaning of being a pastor. Leaders are servants, having the lowest position in the whole community rather than a position of prestige. Young articulates an understanding of servant and shepherding understanding of leadership that arises out of our faith, rather than from management theories.

From the Editor. Unfortunately, relatively few churches actually have a leader at the helm.
