Wilkinson was one of Washington's generals and intimately involved in Burgoyne's campaign. By early 1781 Wilkinson had sold his Pennsylvania properties and moved to Kentucky, where he became involved in continuous and deepening controversy as he engaged in a series of intrigues with the Spanish authorities in New Orleans. What was the housing like? The title should be at least 4 characters long. At the time, many people believed he was involved in the Burr Conspiracy to seize the Rockafellar Martin D. Lawrence River theater of war following Henry Dearborn's reassignment.
