Do not rely on someone else to make your life better. Well written, I loved it.

I had a father who was both firm and fun. It always reminded me of the beginning of the world. What an incredible, thoughtful, moving letter. You told me to be more generous.

You helped shape me into the man I was becoming, and this was a representation of her memoir, The Unwinding of the Miracle. Julie tells the incredible story of her life, and writes this final letter to her two beloved daughters.
