There's seldom discussion of the most obvious and best way of controlling health care costs--let's get healthier as a population through better nutrition, exercise, cutting down on alcohol, tobacco, and drug use, wearing seat belts, wearing bicycle and motorcycle helmets. Once again, the irony is that I sound like the true conservative. Finally, the man was put on standard post-implantation medications to make sure he would not develop a blood clot at the site of the stent. TwitterFacebook. There seems to be a lot misunderstanding about the US. Beyond the big, visible levers reviewed in the previous section, there is a second tier of federal responsibilities and levers that have the potential to make a significant contribution to healthcare innovation in Canada. As one example of poor integration, physicians and hospitals are funded through separate budgets in Canadian healthcare systems.

Gettingthererequiredpatienceandacarefulmixofsmallandbigsteps.Blax Clearly you choose to be born in the wrong country at the wrong time and therefore must pay a higher premium or not be allowed access to public health services. As I normally agree with your posts.
