Notwithstanding, both statisticians qualify their methodology and offer more detailed accounts in other chapters of their respective works. Aftertoday,manynever. On that hot day during one of Kentucky's driest summers, both Union and Confederate troops were parched and searching for water when they encountered each other at Doctor's Fork Creek. This would cost Hardee an extra day on the March to Harrodsburg, but it would give the troops an easier approach. The General Assembly ordered the flag of the United States to be raised over the state capitol in Frankfort, declaring its allegiance with the Union.
