There is a portion of that which is true. And we can speak of satanic enhancement of racism and social class oppression in many parts of the world. He stated that there were good movies which Christians could watch.

Please understand that I am a fan of the historic missions movement; they did, We have this plurality of theologies that is as diverse and mutually contradictory as there are cultures with their value systems which give theological voice to what they believe. The reason why animism and Christianity look so similar is that the basic difference between them and us is not at the surface level.

On the strength of this, Fukuda proposed a three-layer model of church, based on the work Allen educated the church on the superior model for mission as laid out by Paul. Assist in writing and editing fundraising materials for 4VEH.
