Here was a person doing what he loves to do, what gives him purpose in life, and struggling with an iron will to accomplish his goal. It shows that some big things change but that there is still a connection between these two things. This will be enough to keep me busy till you come out with your post. Thankyou,Henneke. Henneke: Well, obviously the big lesson for me is I use the word exactly wayyyyyy too much! Through the narrative of this father, Hemingway subtly weaves in the loss of his mother years ago. Thestoryconveyssthesubsequentproblemsforhelplessvictims,especially is amazing that Hemingway accomplishes so much with so little.

Can he battle everything the sea throws at him to land his prize?
