Most of us have fond memories of collecting sea glass at the beach. There is no text to read in this picture book, just 29 pages full of splendid drawings illustrating the bottle's journey.

We have spent the past month May walking the beaches around Cairns, Queensland. Death was a story-book affair, with narration and intricate programmatic arrangements; Slay Me In My Sleep, an ambitious narrative-based song cycle co-produced with Nils Frahm, was shortlisted for the Australian Music Prize. Mistletoe Melbourne, Australia.

The man-made sea glass, lacking the proper ocean frosting, will be shiny and is a local treasure. You decide.
