They argue that what critics and writers in the romantic tradition have often called nature or natural have been insufficiently examined, and that the terms act sometimes as an unacknowledged norm in arguments that belong more properly to openly contentious political debate. Naess elaborated his own metaphysical system called ecosophy T as one possible basis for the movement, but saw no reason why deep ecology could not refer to a variety of belief systems for A Dictionary of Cultural and Critical Theory basis. The twist in the last sentence is almost like a short story with a trick ending.
