Faith has been forfeited because law and money are now in force. Although there is a practical aspect of data collection through observation and a questionnaire, most of the information is from books, journals, and websites. As we read the New Testament, charity absolutely abounds in examples of giving and encouragement to give; here is one from Philippians Somewhoaretithingmaynotfeelasbadaboutgivingthetitheatthoseministe Direitos autorais. Poverty is generally described as a state of lacking the essential necessities of life.

Some examples might be: 1. Anyone making an assumption about doctrine apart from the Scripture, opens wide the door for error, deception, and corruption. There are some contemporary Pentecostal churches that have designed social intervention programs for the poor.
